A PHOTOGRAPHIC STORY CAPTURED BY ARNOLD PLAYLE ATTREE PARK, CORRYONG

10am - 4pm, Sun 20 - Sat 27 July 2025

Step into the lens of Arnold Playle, a pioneering Corryong photographer whose work captured the essence of the Upper Murray from the 1880s onward.

Born in Geelong, Arnold moved to Corryong in 1883 and became a prominent local figure - watchmaker, jeweller, landowner, and historian. His legacy lives on through stunning glass plate photographs, lovingly preserved and digitised by his descendants, including Mark Whitehead.

This exhibition, supported by the Man from Snowy River Museum, showcases Arnold's remarkable visual record of Corryong's early life - buildings, landscapes, and the people who shaped our town.

A heartfelt thank you to the Playle and Whitehead families, and the late Jim Nicholas, for preserving this priceless history.

BROKEN BUT STRONGER: GOLD RUNS THROUGH OUR VEINS

In 2023, roadworks unearthed a hidden treasure—remnants of Corryong's first town tip. Among the finds were pottery, glass, and household items dating back to the late 1800s.

These fragments, once part of everyday life, tell stories of resilience. Around those tables, our pioneers faced wars, droughts, fires, and illness—yet they endured. Like the pottery they left behind, we too may be broken by life's hardships, but with gold in our veins, we mend - stronger, wiser, and more connected than ever.

IF I COULD TURN BACK TIME

Step back in time and explore the rich history of Corryong and the Upper Murray. This special exhibition features fascinating permanent displays of pioneer life, handcrafted treasures, vintage buggies, and historic buildings.
