

8. TOOMA INN

9 Possum Point Road, Tooma. Ph: 02 6948 4012

Sweet teeth beware, the Tooma Inn has a lolly bar that would rival Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory! There are chocolates, lollies and ice-creams galore within this historic pub.

The lolly bar and gift shop has proved a welcome addition to the venue which was previously known as the Tooma Hotel and first opened in 1879. Featuring all Australian products, the gift shop also sells travelling essentials, such as dishwashing liquid and small goods including jams, chutneys, relishes and rubs. The Tooma Inn has a huge reputation for its quality menu, from Thai chicken and lychee curry, through to lamb shanks and homemade rissoles, pork chops, seafood baskets and bacon and egg rolls. The outdoor entertaining area has a barbecue and is large enough to host a gathering of more than 200 people. Free camping is available onsite for patrons and guests are welcome to park their caravans on the half acre block surrounding the venue with its picturesque views. Basic accommodation is also provided within the Tooma Inn.

7. TINTALDRA HOTEL

2 Main St, Tintaldra. Ph: 0400 800 648

Freshly shucked oysters are not something that feature on the menu of many venues so far inland! Guests at the Tintaldra Hotel are spoiled on weekends, with the owner of the venue hand-delivering fresh oysters from Pambula. But you will need to be fast because they are snapped up very quickly! If the Hotel walls could talk, there would be many a story, as the Tintaldra Hotel was the first pub on the Murray River when it began trading in 1870. Known locally as the 'Tinpot', visitors can enjoy the sweeping views of the Murray River, with the owners daring guests to find a colder beer. The hotel's curry nights are a firm favourite with locals and guests. Basic accommodation is provided within the hotel, with many visitors also enjoying the free onsite camp facilities located near the expansive beer garden. A favourite for organised touring groups

9. KHANCOBAN ALPINE INN

1399 Alpine Way, Khancoban. Ph: 02 6076 9471

You will be greeted with a cold beer and a warm smile on arrival at the Khancoban Alpine Inn. The family-friendly venue is a favourite with visitors to the area partaking in mountain adventures such as fishing, mountain bike riding or snow fun at nearby skiing destinations. Nestled in the foothills of the Snowy Mountains with over 30 rooms, the hotel serves meals seven days a week. Warm open fires in the winter are welcomed and in the hotter months the cool outdoor beer garden provides a shady delight. Hearty pub meals are on offer in the bistro, with even the youngest members of the family being well catered for. Patrons can choose indoor or outdoor dining, with local and boutique beers on tap and a comprehensive wine list. If it's not a meal you are after, why not pop in for some dessert and a night cap?

The pubs and hotels dotted throughout the beautiful Upper Murray region each boast their own unique qualities, from their historic facades and tall tales, to their friendly warm welcomes or mouth-watering signature dishes.

Most of the Upper Murray Pubs are in close proximity to welcoming golf courses; we encourage you to match a meal with a round of golf. For golf club details, contact the Corryong Visitor Information Centre.
